

PICTURE BOOKS FOR RECEPTION AND KS1 June 2020

Stories featuring BAME characters

Chitra Soundar, an Indian-born British author and storyteller based in London, writes 'Young children don't consciously know they need representation in books. But if every primary school classroom had a bookshelf full of diversity, and every reading list was inclusive, every child in the class would experience the joy of seeing themselves represented in the books they read'.

We have begun a list of picture books for children in Reception and Year 1 with Black, Asian and minority ethnic characters. As teachers, let's keep adding to it.
